

Drawings by Luke Easton. Original idea: Javiera Cisternas.

Once upon a time there was a tiny little frog that used to live in the cloud forests.

But its habitat started to change about 1000 years ago with the arrival of iwi ...

... and the arrival of Europeans (about 300 years ago) made matters worse!

We now know what to do to help our frogs and it depends on sustained management